SLIPPERY.—The streets were quite slippery vesterday, from the formation of a coat of ice on the pavements. There is an ordinance imposing a penalty against business men for allowing snow and ice to remain on the pavements in front of their establishments. Some observed the ordinance, vesterday, and were busily engaged in removing the congealed subdangerous to pedestrians, while serenely indifferent. The ordinance is not very vigorously enforced on account of the fact that it imposes almost impossibilities upon the proprietors of establishments who find themselves unable sometimes | to remove the snow and ice as fast as it is formed, fresh deposits from the weather clerk taking the piace of that removed. AMUSEMENTS .- " Arrah na Pogue" is running its successful course at the " Metropolitan." The house fast night was such an one as no ordinary occasion could have called forth from the cosiness of the family fireside to brave the inclemency of the weather and the slippecy pavements. To-night is the occasion of Mr. McDonough's benefit, and the last night but one of Mr. McDenough and Miss Sophia Gimber. The Theater is so comfortable, the labor and expense of the management so extensive in putting the piece upon the boards, the attraction so great, the play itself so meritorious, and the ability of Mr. McDenough and Miss Gimber of so high an order that we take no common interest in asking that substantial appreciation of those prised. efforts to please and cofertain, be manifested by an overflowing house.

The audience at Masonic Hall, last night, to hear the concert of the Six Sisters, the Misses Pierson, was very fair considering the weather. and though we were not permitted to be present, we are assured that the performance was

That Mr. Buchanan had a defense for his policy, all knew; that his defense amounts to self-justification, will be disputed by not a few, and conceded by many. The autobiographer, in answer to the supposed interrogatory. Why was not this work published at an earlier period? answer's that the publication was delayed to avoid the possible imputation, unjust as it would have been, that any portion of it was intended to embarrass Mr. Lincoln's administration in the vigorous prosecution of the pending hostilities. Further on in the book we are informed by Mr. Buchanan that, "At the beginning of these unhappy troubles I determined that no act of mine should increase the excitement in either section of the country." The work concludes thus: " I feel that my duty has been faithfully. lough it may be imperfectly performed; and whatever the result may be. I shall carry to my grave the consciousness that I at least meant well for my country." The work is
